Quality Koi is jumping into fall with a full schedule of show events.

Quality Koi is excited to participate in the 2nd Annual American Koi Breeder show hosted by the Mid- Atlantic Koi Club.

Our koi that we breed here on the Nisei Koi Farm will go head to head with some of the finest koi bred by top breeders in America. Last year Quality Koi walked away with the Grand champion and hope to be just as successful this year.

The participating breeders this year include: Blackwater Creek, Hanover Koi Farm, Kloubec Koi Farm, Nisei Koi Farm aka Quality Koi Company, Tarheel Fish Farm.

Judging will take place on Saturday morning by an esteemed group of judges: Charles Phelps (AKCA, co-head judge), Tom Ayers (AKCA, assistant judge), Bryan Bateman (AKCA, assistant judge), Henry Culpepper (AKCA candidate judge), Robert Johnson (ZNA co-head judge), and Dick Thomas (ZNA candidate judge).

On Sunday at 11am, the breeders will be doing a tank side talk about their breeding program. This is your chance to be able to ask questions regarding American koi directly to the breeders making them.

Quality Koi Company will be bringing a large selection of koi between our AKBS tanks (all QKC koi entered into the AKBS will be for sale) and our vendor booths, so please make sure you visit us during the show.

This show is an excellent opportunity for hobbyists to see in person how American koi breeding is progressing. These breeders will be showing some of their finest koi.
